

"Onward Be Daring"

By Andrew Pell

Onward be daring can unlock the door of opportunity.
Inaction or no action can cause acute anxiety.
Dealing with a problem is a step closer to finding a solution.
Use your intuition and imagination.
Problems can dissolve right before your very eyes.
The positive power of prayer can never be denied.
Be positive and take a giant leap in faith.
Moving forward can be very safe.
Try things you wouldn't normally do.
It will open a world to you that is new.
Be daring, move forward and soar upward.
Being daring is never going backwoods.
All things can change if we trust in our God given ability.
Combine prayer with sustained creativity.
"Onward be daring"
Like eagles we will be soaring.
Imagine each new day, a bright sunlit morning.
