

The Beauty of Everything

By Andrew Pell

Dear Lord I see your beauty in everything.

From a garden of roses, to a well known Hymn.

You gave such wonder and happiness.

It is a shame we opted for less.

Your majestic landscape fills us with complete awe.

We long for the paradise that was here before.

The gift of human interaction;

Motivates us into positive action.

The gift of human love

Transcends from your throne above.

I see you dear Lord in everything that moves.

It is a beauty that completely soothes.

There is a beauty in holiness.

Why settle for less?

Copyright © 2009 Andrew Pell