

The Sea Of Time

By Andrew Pell

Time is forever rolling forward.
We can never go backward.
Each second is but a ripple of a wave.
It propels us forward moving to enslave.

Never stopping always moving.
Never slowing, always laughing.
Be prepared to always move forward with time.
Do not remain stagnant and act benign.

Time is like an ever-rolling sea.
Surf with time, you will set yourself free.
