

You Can See God Everywhere

By Andrew Pell

When I wake up in the morning I see you there.
The flowers in the garden and the people I meet.
I see you in the homeless and the people that care.
You are there in the office and the strangers I greet.
I hear your voice in the strident chords of a symphony.
I see you in a simple act of kindness.
I see you in sick and troubled people, you set them free.
You are everywhere dear Lord, you bless this world.
