What if Hitler took power in Iran?
He would have been stoned in a day!
Would it have been because of his tirades,
Waving his fists in the air?
Not really, that would not have been a change.
Would it have been because of his secret police?
No, they are all use to that!
Would it have been 'cause he sets himself up as god?
Nah, they'll worship anything that moves.
How about because he dressed his servants in black?
Are you cereal, they would have thought it was cool!
Might they have been upset for his killing so many Jews?
I'm not EVEN going to answer that!
No, they would have loved him, except for one thing.
They would have hated his mustache...an unholy abomination!

When dealing with the religious...you can't please anybody!
