TARP and a cop out,
Fade out,
And a bore.

Taking billions so executives can make millions but fuck the poor.

'Toys For Tots', sounds like a good reason for the US Marines to help children,
To show the world they do more than fight and win wars.

"We no longer allow collection boxes as it is offensive to some,"
Spoken by a manager...I wonder if he views child porn?
Maybe in the privacy of his bank owned office he snorts coke?
Or maybe he just must do as he's told.

"We give 11 million to charity," said by the same, without mentioning the billions
Received by the government for a bailout, now that shit's offensive to me.

So easy to anger am I but I'm also a Marine.
Fighting not just America's enemy, but America's greed.

So God bless America, and if saying it offends,
Then go make yourself happy,
Decorate a Christmas tree.

The End
