

Do It For the Children

By Robin Lipinski

They have no food
No shoes
No education
No hope,
Love,
Joy...

"So what is your solution?"
To change the world,
Set it free!
Getting rid of pollution,
Global warming,
Corporate greed,
Getting rid of meat...

"How will this help the children?"

Uh...

"Are you pro-abortion, for free love, a vegetarian, atheist, agnostic, against God, and US government?"

Yes!

"So how will you help the poor children of a Mormon cattle farming community who pay taxes?"

Say what?

"And how do you get paid?"

I get social security and free government cheese.

"Cheese comes from cows and nothing from the government is free."

Do it for the children.
They have no food
No shoes
No education
No hope,
Love,
Joy...

"Have you given them food, shoes, education, hope, love joy?"

(Silence)

"Yet you have money for a computer, marijuana, expensive clothes."

"Where is your love, your joy?"

(Angry silence)

Who are you to ask such questions?

"The poor child you speak of, the one with no shoes.
The one with no love, hope or joy.
In this current depression, that child is me."

The End
