

Fuggedaboutit

(By a Wise Guy)

By Robin B Lipinski

"Get out of my life!"

World filled with hate and strife. Oh bring the house down boys, bring it down.

"You and your slut can get along fine, I'm leaving you Bob, good riddance, good night."

World filled with deceit and greed. Oh bring the house down boys, bring it down right.

"We can't loan you money because we're the bank. Come back later with blood."

"Get out of my life. Go away and die!"

World filled with toxins, with poison. Oh bring the house down boys, bring it tonight.

"God tells me to kill you, so it is my right."

World filled with anger and misery. Oh bring the house down boys, bring on the pain.

Politicians.

Murder.

Adultery.

Pride.

Sloth.

Lies.

Rape.

Oh bring the house down boys, bring it down now, bring the house down now, it's what the world needs.

So long a list, so little time, this poem is long so I best say goodnight...Wait a minute.

My name is Satan.

I love what I see.

I love to see you fail.

To feel pain.

So fuggedaboutit, feel bad, I'll see you tonight in your dreams.
