

Leo

By Robin Lipinski

Running.

Around the world spinning in direction guided by what, a feeling?
Experimentation spinning out of control guided by what, a feeling?
So, just how are you feeling?
Are you in control?

Running,

Away from a feeling towards a feeling, feeling alone yet feeling something.
Leo felt it as he always had been running.
He felt it stop.

And while you sleep now,
The wheel that killed you will never stop.

The End
