

Vestal Virgins

(By Pontifex)

By Robin B Lipinski

Raging rag.

On the rag.

Raging bull.

Marriage to that which faith cannot see.

Faith to that which no one can see.

Navigate the sea as far as the Indians.

Saracens.

Mahomet.

The Bull.

What does this all mean?

What additional comment can it mean?

Vestal virgins have no place here, none as the battle between is lost.

1455, another year of decree.

Vesta lost to the Virgin's Son.

Blood flows monthly as proof for all to see.

Careful in your choice of faith.

Careful of new decree.

Careful of the coming month.

June/July, we shall see.

The End