

A Singer's Worth

By Sabrina M. Cummings

What is it?
Sing & leave
By no means
Just take the time
See what you leave behind
*In song
You're left with something
That fills your heart
Listening to sung words
Every voice & note does its part
Feelings stirred
*In every word
Emitting, meaning & purpose
It's all worth it
A voice of pure elegance
In pitch and in timed
Every note that's sung
Every rhythm & every rhythm
A sound that soothes
Emotions in Life
Makes it easy to bear
Today's burdens & life's strife
A singers worth
You just don't know
It's appreciated
By some people
An guess what
They let it show
A singers worth
For those that don't know
Honey, let me tell you
It's worth more than GOLD
